2,600 MINERS STILL IDLE IN THREE STATES

Work Stoppage Resumed in Ohio.

By The Associated Press
PITTSBURGH, May 8.—Four thousand striking coal miners returned to work today near Pittsburgh, but 500 men at the Pennsylvania mine quit, leaving more than 5,000 workers in three states still idle in the coal strike.

A spokesman for the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. said workers at its Springfield mine at Bobtown, Pa., failed to report for the 7 a. m. shift.

Employees of the Vesta No. 4 mine at California, largest of the U. S. L. pits, returned to their jobs early today after a meeting last night with district 5 officials of the United Mine Workers.

Joe P. Bussarello, district 5 president, declared he was "glad they're back. I was worried sick about it." The Bobtown mine is in district 4.

Stoppage Threat Reappears
At the same time a threat that thousands of other miners resume work stoppage of last week unless operators sign a contract with the United Mine Workers by the end of the 15-day truce was issued from UMW district 5 in western Pennsylvania.

Two of the walkouts in Pennsylvania and Ohio were protests against attempts of coal operators to line employees for taking part in unauthorized strikes prior to the general shutdown last Friday night, when the extended contract expired.

The third at the Kind mine near Princeton, Ind., was blamed by Mine Supt. David Jones on a two-week-old wage dispute. He said 200 men on the night shift failed to report for work last night when they found themselves "docked" for time lost in an April walkout, which centered about work days lost during mechanical trouble.

Contract Provides Fines
Under the contracts operators may fine miners $1 for each day they participate in an unauthorized strike. Thus, the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp. of Pittsburgh sought to assess employees of its "captive" mines $5 apiece for five days they were out last week. Refusing to pay, 1,600 men at the company's Vesta No. 4 mine near California, Pa., quit work last night.

The soft coal walkouts were the first since the government took over operation of the mines last Saturday.

Meanwhile the first specific threat that miners would not work without a contract after their wage expires May 18 was issued by John P. Bussarello, president of UMW district 5, which includes about 38,000 of western Pennsylvania's 117,000 bituminous miners.

Bussarello said the district board adopted this resolution at Pittsburgh.

"The officers and members of district 5 will carry out the traditional policy of no contract, no work effective as of midnight May 18, 1948."

Call Times Illegal
Bussarello contended the fines were illegal. He explained that the contract provided fines of $1 daily for each day miners were out, and a similar amount against companies in case of lockouts.

Final Action Taken To Assure Start of Marion Day Nursery

Committee Approves Report Showing Need for Day-time Care of Women War Workers' Children.

Establishment in the near future of a day nursery for the care of pre-school age children in families where women are engaged in war work was assured last night when the Day Nursery committee unanimously endorsed the report of Mrs. J. Malcolm Strelitz, chairman, and authorized the executive board of the committee to further plans for a nursery in a small way and also to investigate the child welfare necessities in the city.

The decision was reached following discussions of the project at a meeting of the committee held at the Y.M.C.A. and attended by representatives of the Marion Community Foundation, Inc., educational, medical, labor, employment, civil and other organizations, and the state departments of education and public welfare.

A survey conducted recently by the block leaders of the civilian defense organization, showed that while approximately 1,000 families were interested in either day nursery or foster home care, there were only about 50 children over two years and under six years of age whose mothers were employed and desired day nursery care.

According to tentative plans the day nursery will be started in the near future, with a paid supervisor, assisted by volunteer helpers, who will have taken a prescribed course in the work under the direction of the Red Cross.

The work will be started on a small scale, and as the necessities and the staff will be enlarged and other needs taken care of accordingly.

According to the report there was approximately a 60 per cent response to the more than 10,000 questionnaires asking opinions of the citizens as to Marion's need for day care for children of working women. These have been checked and are now on file with the committee.

Source of Funds
Funds for operating the day nursery are available in the amount of $2,500 from the Marion Community Foundation, Inc., and there will be income from the operation of the nursery for which a charge of 30 cents a day per child will be asked. Further funds, the report stated, may be available from contributions and it is possible that some federal grant, at least to cover transportation, may be had.

The place for operating the day nursery will be left in the hands of the executive committee which will hold a meeting in the near future.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Verna Walters, supervisor of extended school services, state department of education, Miss Louise Noble and Thomas Fetzner of the state welfare department.

These developments followed closely an earlier announcement that a bond rally will be held at Martel Tuesday night at a joint meeting of Marion and United Granges. The Harding choir will speak. The granges are in charge of the program.

In connection with the campaign in rural communities, campaign leaders today emphasized that bonds purchased outside of Marion county in May will not count on the bomber goal except in the (Turn to BOMBER, Page 9)

RURAL AREAS IN BOND DRIVE

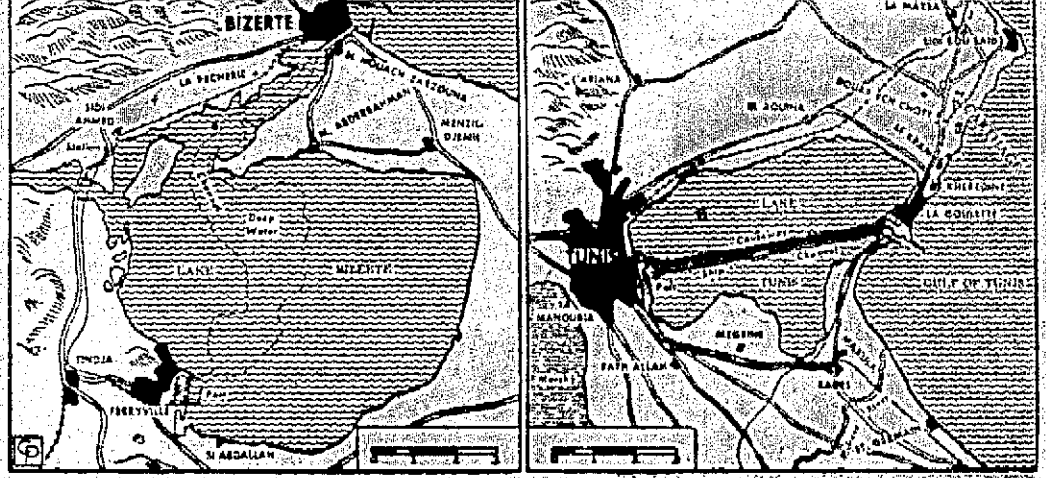

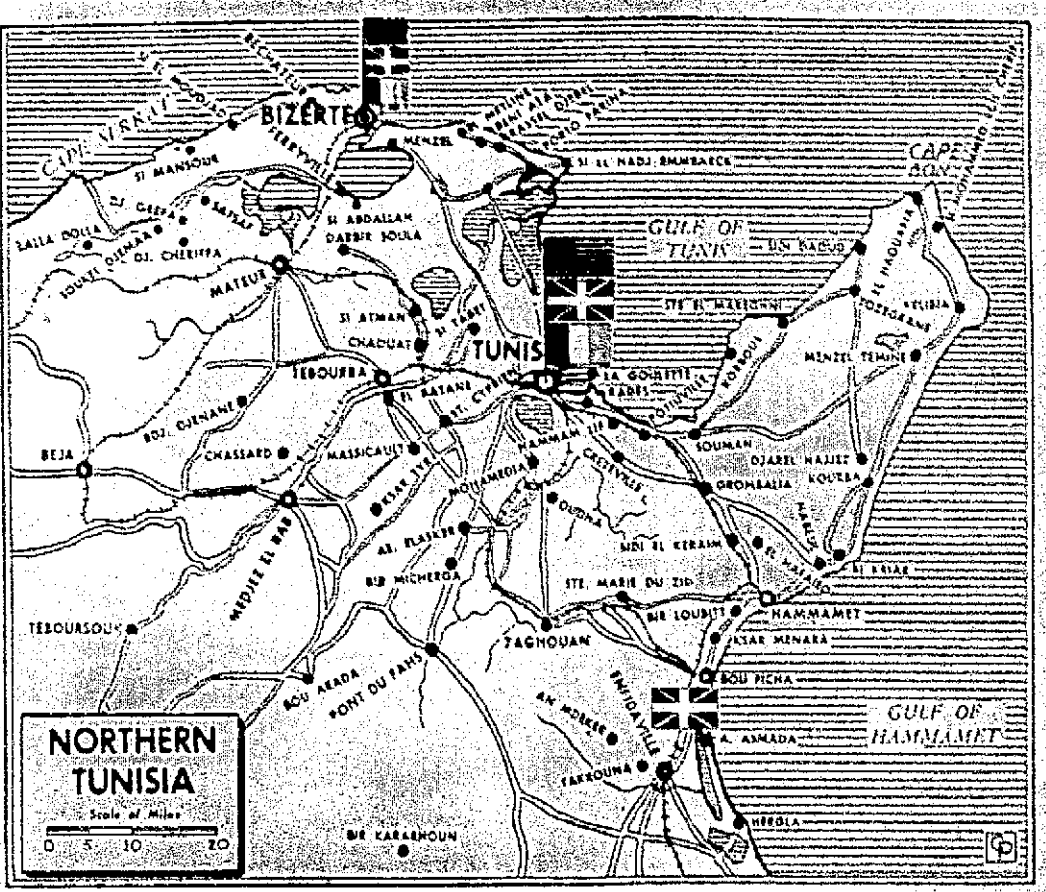

Marion county residents outside the city of Marion are going to buy their full share of the four motor bomber that is to be named "The Spirit of Marion County, Ohio" if the county's war bond sales this month hit the $325,000 mark.

This became evident today when plans for two more big bond rallies were announced by Carl E. Danner, bomber drive chairman, and Elmer J. Schoenlaub, county war bond committee chairman, after conferring with leaders in rural communities.

One of the rallies will be held at the Morral school on May 20 in the school auditorium. Salt Rock and Grand Prairie Granges are taking the lead in setting up the program, working with Dwight Mahaffey, chairman, for Morral and surrounding rural area. Tentative plans call for the Harding high school as capella choir.

MAPS REVEAL FAST COLLAPSE OF AXIS DEFENSES. Lightning offensive of the Allied armies in Tunisia, which resulted in the swift capture of both Bizerte and Tunis, can be traced on these maps. Top map gives a general picture of the situation, with Axis forces now confined to the sector south of the two cities and to the Cape Bon peninsula and the area immediately south of it. The two closeup maps, bottom, show in detail the areas around the two principal bases through which the Allies fought to capture them.

CAP To Manage Airport

Marysville Couple Placed in Charge of Post Office; Plans for Courier Service Discussed.

The Marion flight of Squadron 515-2, Civil Air Patrol, has taken over operation of the municipal airport here, it was announced today by the squadron executive officer, Lt. W. R. Reichenstein.

In an organization meeting held at Lt. Reichenstein's home, Intelligence Officer Lt. William J. Traynor of Marysville was appointed manager of the airport and also was appointed courier service for the flight.

Sgt. Carl Green of Prospect was appointed to take over the adjutant's work, assisting Lt. Jack Barnhart, whose outside work necessitates being away from Marion much of the time. Flight Officer William Emberton, also of Prospect, was placed in charge of the ground crew personnel.

He will be responsible for operations orders and also the clearance of officers and airport guards. He is also the deputy squadron supply officer. Lt. Paul McCleary is squadron transportation officer.

Previously Directed Activities
Alvin A. Freeman, former operator of the airport, is now on active duty as an Army air force instructor at Toledo. In order to keep the airport open it was necessary for the Civil Air Patrol unit here to take over its operation.

All arrangements for the change over were made by Lt. Reichenstein, as squadron executive officer. On April 29, he completed arrangements for the airport to be operated by the local CAP flight members. The airport has been under CAP direction since April 28, this year. From that time to May 1, CAP guarded the airport for 18 hours a day without compensation, at which time a full-time airport guard was secured.

Members have cleaned the airport buildings. The office has been redecorated and necessary repairs have been made about the office work shop and hangar. The work is nearing completion. The past few evenings patrol members have been leveling run cut into the flying field during recent wet weather. The water pump, out of order for sometime, also was repaired by CAP members.

Plan Courier Service
CAP Industrial Courier Service is a service which the Marion CAP unit and its sister flight at Gallion is to engage in as one of its duties. Squadron Commander Eric Brooke of Odell, Lt. Reichenstein and Lt. Traynor

War Summary

AFRICA—American and British troops press on after Axis army retreating from Tunis and Bizerte. Pockets of resistance mopped up in two cities. Many prisoners and supplies captured. French take Point Du Fahs. Americans, operating under new commander, take naval base six months in day after landing in North Africa. British 8th Army makes progress through extensive mine fields in south.

RUSSIA—Moscow reports Reds and Germans engaged in violent battle nine miles from Novorossisk.

U. S. GUNS OPEN GERMAN LINES

Tons of Metal a Minute Poured Into Nazi Defenses by Artillery.

By HAROLD V. BOYLE
AP War Correspondent
WITH AMERICAN FORCES AT MATEUR, May 7.—(Delayed)—American artillery threw tons of metal a minute late yesterday to support of tanks blasting their way up the slopes to knock out German guns which had been shelling Mateur for three days from the wadis and mountain ravines in the hills southeast of the little French town.

"Our tanks rolled right over some anti-tank positions, crushing the German gun crews under their tracks before they had a chance to break and run," said a sergeant in an armored command post describing the fierceness of the battle that has been raging around this village the past two days.

The storming of German strong points southeast of Mateur was one of the most spectacular battles scenes of the entire six-month Tunisian campaign.

Soldiers on the hills for miles around watched in awe at the mighty display across the valley from them as General Sherman's tanks advanced in spurts toward German strong positions stopping only for a moment to fire and then rush forward. Orange bursts of flame from their 75 millimeter guns momentarily hid the tanks from view and the answering flames of German guns broke the blues of the mountainside, which was slowly covered by smoke from exploding artillery shells.

Shortly before a flight of B-29 bombers sprayed the German positions with incendiary bombs, a last ditch delaying stand, with heavy bombs which geysered up columns of flame, black smoke and debris in the target area.

Teaming perfectly with the tanks in the attack, hidden American artillery batteries, firing over the hills from which this writer had a superb view of the engagement, sent shells hurtling toward the Nazis at the rate of 40 per minute at the height of the battle.

They landed in series of vivid flashes like exploding boilers sending up great white smoke showers that drifted lazily skyward.

Gradually the whole hill area became obscured by smoke. Night hid the battle and its results from watchers on the hills who found it difficult to realize they were viewing a scene of distant carnage. They could see the heavy bursts of death hidden in those bright flame bursts, clearing their steel wrappers in jagged patterns of bright streaks.

The reason for the change in command, it was explained, was that the new zone of operations assigned to the Americans made the northern drive essentially an infantry fight. Patton is an armored fighting specialist.

Eisenhower expressed the highest confidence in both generals. (There was nothing in this dispatch to indicate the present whereabouts of General Patton.) General Eisenhower, allied commander in chief, said "Naturally I am delighted with the developments which brought us into Bizerte and Tunis but so far as I am concerned as long as a single armed German is in Africa and there is still a battle and I want to destroy the rest of his resistance."

Eisenhower learned of the fall of Tunis and Bizerte as he returned to headquarters from a visit to the front last night. It was no surprise.

This battle again has shown the great advantage of unification which we achieved by putting General Sir Harold Alexander in command and setting him back to back from here to day. The plan commander said.

He has been able to transfer from where he wanted it and he has handled the battle as a single unit. He is now seeing the results of his unification.

FLEEING AXIS TROOPS HEAD FOR CAP BON

Allied Naval Units Ready To Smash Any Attempt To Evacuate Soldiers.

By The Associated Press
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, May 8.—Allied troops hammered scattered pockets of resistance and pursued fleeing detachments from conquered Tunis and Bizerte today in a battle which Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said would continue "as long as a single armed German is on African soil."

Six months to the day after allied landing barges grounded on French North African beaches, the allied commander said "significantly," "The advance continues."

French troops captured Point Du Fahs and high ground to the east to roll up the right wing of axis lines still holding on the southern front to contribute to the offensive, in which Americans seized Bizerte and the British First Army took Tunis yesterday.

British armor, shelling aside a force of 35 enemy tanks, captured seeking haven from the merciless air and ground bombardments, was heading for the mountainous Cape Bon peninsula in an effort to delay for a few days the final defeat expected to be a prelude to the allied invasion of Europe.

Troops of the U. S. Second Corps, operating under a new commander, quelled intermittent resistance overnight in the state of Bizerte and British forces likewise mopped up Tunis.

Fighting continued beyond both cities. Hundreds of prisoners, their numbers still uncouned, streamed to the rear.

One of the drives through to Tunis cut the roads of retreat of German and Italian forces in the Bizerte region and pockets were being wiped out in little and other areas by the speedy marches of both Americans and British.

Germans in Confusion
Advanced elements reaching Tunis said civilians and Nazi soldiers alike appeared unaware of the proximity of allied forces on the outskirts. Confusion reigned with some fighting in the streets and sniping from buildings, but this was cleared up quickly.

Middle forces said the American forces faced a similar situation in Bizerte, but the important naval base—first entered by the 88th (tank) destroyer battalion of the American Ninth division—was soon under control.

French troops found extremely heavy mine fields when they drove into Point Du Fahs, indicating the Germans had planned a prolonged defense, and Eighth army patrol probing the axis line along the coast above Kaidville said mine fields there were the most extensive they had encountered since they left El Alamein.

Americans captured 465 prisoners in the attack upon Bizerte alone. In addition, a large amount of available military supplies which the Germans had no time to destroy or remove was seized.

Prisoners over the whole front were coming in rapidly. In one sector a number of German survivors rendered using their own transport to give themselves up.

The allied commander said many prisoners and much equipment were being taken to the rear.

At this point Russian Stormtrooper and dive bombers swooped in to dump tons of explosives on the axis infantry and wheeled guns, throwing them into flight.

A front dispatch said that prisoners captured in a whole platoon of the 73rd German infantry division had been shot for abandoning their positions against orders.

The Soviet armies also captured several strategic hills as they pushed towards the Black sea northeast of Novorossisk.

Despite the heavy pounding by Soviet aviation, however, the Germans managed to feed infantry reinforcements and tanks into the battle zone, scoring a temporary minor success.

FOOD SUBSIDY IN SPOTLIGHT

Two Billion Dollar a Year Program Reported New Administration Plan.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, May 8.—Reported plans of the administration for establishing a $2,000,000,000-a-year program for subsidizing the cost of living took the top spot in the capital's news picture today.

Price Administrator Prentiss M. Brown already has announced that meat, coffee and butter subsidies—designed to force a 10 percent deduction in the cost of these products—will become operative June 1.

RFC To Help
The meat, coffee and butter program, to be financed through the Reconstruction Finance Corp., will cost about $400,000,000 yearly. The $2,000,000,000 proposal reported under study by administration leaders was said to include plans for subsidizing canned fruits and vegetables and a long list of other foods.

Previous suggestions for subsidizing foods have met strong congressional opposition. Some administration officials and legislators expressed the belief the $2,000,000,000 program would not be undertaken unless Congress grants specific authority.

Brown predicted the meat-coffee-butter subsidy program would trim 5 cents a pound off present beef and veal prices, 4 cents a pound off pork, 4 to 5 cents a pound off butter and about 3 cents a pound off coffee.

To Control Living Costs
Government subsidies, administration spokesmen said, are one means of controlling living costs and preventing inflation. Wages generally have not kept pace with increasing living costs, they said.

On Capitol Hill, the senate finance committee met to incorporate the modified Ruml skip-a-year plan into a new income tax measure. The committee voted 13 to 6 yesterday in favor of the principle of abating a full year's taxes in changing to a pay-as-you-go basis.

The senate group rejected the house-approved current collection bill, which would wipe out 73 percent of 1942 obligations. The committee planned to have its measure ready for presentation to the senate some time next week. Opponents of the skip-a-year proposal indicated they would oppose the modified Ruml plan on the senate floor.

LEGION PICKS OMAHA
INDIANAPOLIS, May 8.—The American Legion's executive committee voted yesterday to hold the 1943 convention of the ex-service men's organization in Omaha, Neb., on Sept. 21-22-23.

G. B. ORR RITES
Funeral services for George B. Orr of 254 Park boulevard were conducted yesterday afternoon in the Schaffner-Denzer funeral home on East Center street by Rev. D. N. Kelly of Wesley Methodist church. Burial was made in Marion cemetery. Mr. Orr died in a rest home here Wednesday.

Scouts are Kind!

The World is Facing a Challenge Today. Freedom is Facing a Challenge. American Boys are Facing a Challenge.

THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA ACCEPT ALL THREE

Working as they do hand in hand with the church, the school, and the home there can be but one result, SUCCESS. No power yet has defeated the Church, the School and the American Home.

NO POWER EVER WILL

Scouts Go Straight—They Help Others Go Straight

THE SCOUT OATH

On My Honor I Will Do My Best: To Do My Duty to God and My Country; and To Obey the Scout Law; To Help Other People at all Times; To Keep Myself Physically Strong, Mentally Awake and Morally Straight

DO A GOOD TURN DAILY

1. A SCOUT IS TRUSTWORTHY

A Scout's honor is to be trusted. If he were to violate his honor by telling a lie or by cheating, or by not doing exactly a given task, which he has promised to do, he may be directed to hand over his Scout badge.

2. A SCOUT IS LOYAL

He is loyal to all to whom loyalty is due, his Scout Leader, his home, and parents and country.

3. A SCOUT IS HELPFUL

He must be prepared at any time to save life, help injured persons, and share the home of a friend. He must do at least one Good Turn to somebody every day.

4. A SCOUT IS FRIENDLY

He is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout.

5. A SCOUT IS COURTEOUS

He is polite to all, especially to women, children, old people and the weak and helpless. He must not take pay for being helpful or courteous.

6. A SCOUT IS KIND

He is a friend to animals. He will not kill nor hurt any living creature needlessly, but will strive to save and protect all harmless life.

7. A SCOUT IS OBEDIENT

He obeys his parents, Scoutmaster, Patrol Leader, and all other duly constituted authorities.

8. A SCOUT IS CHEERFUL

He smiles whenever he can. His obedience to orders is prompt and cheerful. He never snarls nor grumbles at hardships.

9. A SCOUT IS THRIFTY

He does not wantonly destroy property. He works faithfully, wastes nothing and makes the best use of his opportunities. He saves his money so that he may pay his own way, be generous to those in need, and helpful to worthy objects. He may work for pay, but must not receive tips for courtesies or Good Turns.

10. A SCOUT IS BRAVE

He has the courage to face danger in some fear, and to stand up for the right against the coaxing of friends or the jeers or threats of enemies, and defeat does not down him.

11. A SCOUT IS CLEAN

He keeps clean in body and thought, stands for clean speech, clean sport, clean habits, and tries to win a clean crowd.

12. A SCOUT IS REVERENT

He is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties, and respects the convictions of others in matters of custom and religion.

Dear Mom—

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Writer

DEAR MOM:
I started out to say I send my love on Mother's Day. But then I thought, one day can't hold the things I really should have told you long ago, but never did. I guess I was a thoughtless kid before I left, but now I know into whatever spot I go, your love will always follow me. Your cheerful smile will always be in front of me, to urge me on, and say, "Of course you'll make it, John." Just like you always used to do. When I was worried, scared or blue—like when I thought I wouldn't pass. My final tests in history class, or when I tried to make the team, or woke up scared from a bad dream, I've had some bad dreams lately, too. But then I've always thought of you, and things came back in line again. Well, Mom, I guess I don't know when I'll see you, but I want to say, I'll think of you on Mother's Day. P. S. Things here are all okay. Well, guess it's time to hit the hay.
Love—John.

Captain Clark Gable in First Air Raid

LONDON, May 8 — Captain Clark Gable went on his first raid in the Flying Fortress attack on May 4 on Antwerp and "enjoyed it and learned a lot," the Eighth Air Force today quoted him as saying.
Gable, former film star, flew as an observer on the Fortress "Eightball Second," which went through the raid without encountering enemy planes and sustained only two small sink holes. The plane was piloted by Capt. William R. Calhoun Jr. of Birmingham, Ala.
Gable, who qualified as air gunner before his recent arrival from the United States, did no shooting. The pilot called the trip "uneventful."

Commencement at Ashley To Be Held May 20

ASHLEY — Walter B. Bliss, executive secretary of the Ohio State Teachers' Association, will give the 1942 class address at the annual commencement Thursday, May 20, at 8:15 p. m. Mr. Bliss was formerly a school administrator and high school instructor for the department of education. At the commencement exercises 15 boys and girls will receive diplomas. They are: John LeMaster, June Brooks, Verne Ball, Anne McChes, Joan Smith, Jane Cole, Ruth LaFollette, Jewel Hillman, Don Grill, Raymond Veley, Delbert Ashburn, Carroll Briggs, Don Knauer, Gerson Ruggles, James Palmer.
The annual school picnic on the last day of school has been cancelled and the games will bring the pupils to the school building Friday afternoon for their cards and awards. The different rooms are planning parties to be held before the close of school.

Ashley Boy Scout Troop No 34 met in the Scout hall Tuesday. The meeting was in charge of Crawford Carter. Stuart Powers led the drill. Alfred Myers passed Harvey Warner and Dick Westbrook in their fireman's merit badge.

In the Second War Bond drive the pupils of the Ashley school have sold $3,535 in bonds and $422.10 in stamps. The bonds were taken care of at the Farmers' Bank and the stamps at the Post-office.

Harold Shoemaker will have charge of the boys 4-H club work in Ashley this coming season and are organizing Wednesday of this week. Victory gardens and livestock clubs will be included in the program.

BLACKOUT SIGNAL SYSTEM STUDIED

Local Communities To Use Plan Followed in Past.

At a meeting of civilian defense coordinators of Marion county at the C. D. control center on North State street last night, William R. Martin, county coordinator, announced the same signals used in previous tests would be used for the nine-county blackout May 12.

A chart carried by The Star last night indicated the signalling procedure would be the same in all areas affected in the blackout. However, Coordinator Martin pointed out that in at least two of the county's villages signalling devices in use will be operated differently than the signals in Marion and other county municipalities.

Attending last night's meeting were six coordinators and a representative of the state highway patrol and Police Chief William E. Marks.

Miss Jane Starner, Lt. J. R. MacKenna Wed in Virginia

MRS. JOHN R. MACKENNA

DR. AND MRS. A. A. STARNER of New York City, N. Y., former residents of Marion are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy, to Lt. John Richard MacKenna, U. S. Marine Corps, son of Mrs. Harriet MacKenna and the late Patrick A. MacKenna of Cincinnati. The military ceremony was performed Thursday morning by Father J. P. Rice, chaplain in the Marine base chapel at Quantico, Va., in the presence of families and friends of the couple.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace and tulle, with a fitted basque and bouffant skirt ending in a train. Her bridal veil of illusion fell from Juliet cap of matching lace trimmed with cascading lilies of the valley, and she carried white orchids.
Mrs. Michael Andrews of Holyoke, Mass., sister of the bride was her matron of honor. Her costume, all of blue, included a jersey dress, lace trimmed and a tiny headpiece of blue tulle and forget-me-nots. She carried white gardenias. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Starner chose a lace trimmed ensemble of black sheer and a white hat. Her corsage was fashioned of gardenias. Lt. Leonard D'Onnell, U. S. Marine Corps, served as best man for Lt. MacKenna.

The wedding breakfast was held at the Officer's club located on a high hill overlooking the post. In the afternoon Lt. and Mrs. MacKenna flew west on a wedding trip and on May 20 will report at Parris Island, S. C.
The bridegroom, prior to his enlistment in the Marine Corps, was a resident of Cincinnati and is a graduate of Xavier university. He was employed by the U. S. treasury department, division of internal revenue. He was graduated May 5 as a lieutenant in the 22nd Reserve Officers class at Quantico, and will take up his first assignment at Parris Island.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary Parochial High school and Mount Saint Joseph-on-the-Ohio and has been engaged in theater and radio work in New York City. She was heard on the radio with Andre Kostelanetz in his radio program "Turn Up Time" and appeared in Broadway shows including "Keep Off the Grass," "The Little Dog Laughed" and "DuBarry Was a Lady."

Marion Woman And Iowa Soldier Married

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Warner of 212 Sharp street are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marie Warner, to Pfc. Lindley Birkett Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Birkett of West Liberty, Iowa. The ceremony took place April 24 at West Liberty, and the couple will reside in California where Pfc. Birkett is stationed. Mrs. Marie Cox of 294 Franklin avenue is Mrs. Birkett's grandmother.

Commissioners of Area To Meet at Kenton

A meeting of the Central-Northwestern County Commissioners association will be held Monday evening at Kenton with Common Pleas Judge Arthur Tudor of Kenton as guest speaker. Dinner will be at 7:30 o'clock at Martin's Cafe. Business will include the annual election of officers. Attending from Marion will be W. L. Risch, H. G. Krane, J. D. Jones, county commissioners, Walter S. Guthrie, clerk, James E. Reed, county prosecutor, Walter Johnston, county engineer and Ora McCurdy, former county commissioner.

Rickey's Recovery of Allen Pays Off

Veteran Right Hander Does Fine Job of Relief Hurling for Dodgers.

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Branch Rickey has made some credit deals but none probably ever was more timely than the one he engineered in bringing Johnny Allen back to the Brooklyn Dodgers after disposing of him.

Although the 37-year-old right hander had a 1942 record of 10 and 6, Rickey, after succeeding Lieut. Col. Lorry S. MacPail as head man of the Dodgers, lost little time sending Allen and $20,000 to Philadelphia for the much younger Rube Melton.

GALION WILL PLAY HARDING MONDAY

Orangemen Will Come to Lincoln for Twin Bill.

By The Associated Press

Harding High's baseball nine will tangle with the Galion Orangemen in a return double-header at Lincoln park at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon.

The Presidents opened their 1943 season at Galion Thursday and were promptly demolished in both ends of a twin bill, 9 to 3 and 11 to 2. The Red and Black will attempt to gain sweet revenge over the Orangemen in two seven-inning games on the diamond of the North Side park. Don Kay, victim of Thursday's first tilt, will start on the mound in Monday's curtain raiser. Second game hurling assignment is a question mark with Dick Mulvane and Bob Lee, who started Thursday's night cap, being the main possibilities for President chukkers.

Last night's outdoor practice was called off because of unfavorable weather and instead a skullduggery was held at the school. Only pre-game rehearsal that the Prezies will receive will be the customary batting and fielding practice immediately preceding the play ball call of the umpire.

The other National league game saw the Phillies go on their big scoring spree of the season behind the five-hit pitching of venerable St. Johnson. With Jimmy Wasdell driving in six runs on a homer, triple and single, the Phils blasted three Giant hurlers for 13 hits to win 13 to 3.

Shadow Bowling Latest Innovation for Factory Girls

CHICAGO, May 2—Pretty Betty Nelson took up her best bowling stance and prepared to throw. Attractive Jeanie Wayne stood alongside as though taking a lesson.

SOFTBALL PLANS TO BE COMPLETED ON MONDAY

Deadline Near For Teams To Enter Y-Leagues.

The Marion softball commission will meet at the Y.M.C.A. at 8 p. m. Monday to plan the final organization of city softball leagues for this summer.

Monday has been designated as the deadline for all team entries in the Marion softball leagues. As yet, Marion Mewhorter, commission secretary, has received only 12 entries. The leagues will be set up in Monday night's meeting in preparation for the official opening game of the 1943 season at Lincoln park, May 17.

TEAM PRACTICE SUNDAY

The Lords Jewelry softball team will hold a practice at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at Garfield park in preparation for the opening of its season May 23. Manager Bob Putman reported today. Putman also announced that measurements for new uniforms will be taken at the practice. The Jewellers' pre-season practice was originally scheduled for last Sunday but was postponed because of unfavorable weather.

Basketball fans who saw the Original Celtics play back in 1922-23 say it was the greatest team of all time. The boys started as a New York City Community House club in 1916 and played together with few changes until 1928. The Original Celtics were Joe Lapchick (left), Chris Leonard, Dutch Dehnert, Pete Barry (originator of the team), Nat Holman, Johnny Whitty, manager; Johnny Beckman and Eddie Burke.

SNATCHES OF SPORTS

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

NEW YORK, May 2—A year ago the fight mob was saying Henry Armstrong was too nice a guy to be trying a comeback. Now they're calling him the fight promoters' savior. After winning 15 of 17 fights on the coast, Hank came east to draw $33,000 against Al Tribbani in Philadelphia, $105,000 against Beau Jack in Madison Square Garden, $10,000 against Saverio Turillo in Washington and last night $24,000 against Tommy Jessup in Boston. Hank is booked to meet Maxie Shapiro in Philly May 24.

To Try Morning Game

Bill Veeck, Milwaukee Brewers' young president, with his first morning game scheduled today against St. Paul, held hopes of outdrawing the 2,997 fans who turned out for the A. M. encounter at Cincinnati recently and with the definite prediction he would pull out a better crowd than the 406 which reported for an after-breakfast contest at Columbus.

Milwaukee helped set up the morning match by beating Minneapolis 5 to 0 yesterday and grabbing its first victory at Borchert Field this season. Prince Oana tossed a four-hitter at the Millers.

The game was the only one played yesterday because of weather.

Powell, Norbert "Fleet" After Another Win

Lead Association in Batting Honors

By The Associated Press

BALTIMORE, Md., May 2—Count Fleet attempted today to do what only seven horses before him have done—win the $50,000-added Preakness stakes after coming home first in the Kentucky Derby.

And the crowd, which was expected to reach 35,000, was confident he could do it—so confident that in the early waning Mrs. John D. Hertz's brown horse was 1-4 or 1-5 choice to ramp in ahead of three other colts likely to start against him.

INDUSTRIAL CAGE LEAGUE DINNER TUESDAY NIGHT

Presentation Of Awards, Showing Of Films On Program.

The Industrial basketball league banquet will be held in the assembly room of the Y.M.C.A. Tuesday at 8 p. m.

All teams that were members of the league which played at the Y last winter will be represented. The Universal Cooler Corp. will present special awards to its team, which won the loop title.

In addition to the presentation of awards pictures of the National Collegiate and National Professional basketball tournaments will be shown. The films have been obtained from the Congress Rubber Co.

In charge of arrangements are Bob Scott and John McKeever.

Bowling Hot Shots

Wind Up Spring Classic

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, May 2—Hot shots of bowling who came to town today to wind up the $15,000 Petersen spring classic over the week-end encountered a job that will test the best of them.

Detroit's own experts, with some help from out-of-towners, gave the pins a battering in the fourth night of competition last night to record three more 1700 scores and shake up the standings.

Louis Slaff, Detroit city champion, piled on the strikes in his last six games to total 1740 for the leadership.

Harold Asplund of Denver, 37-year-old railroad clerk, aggregated 1733 for second place, pushing Art Knecht of Detroit, former leader with 1723, down to third place.

A Message To Mothers From Sons And Daughters Everywhere

Dear Mothers:

This is the first Mother's Day most of us have ever been away from home. Always before we've told you face to face how much we love you and appreciate the many things you do for us.

You know we're not much good at writing letters, especially this kind, but we do want you to know we're thinking of you and how much we owe to your unselfish care of us ever since we were born.

We can just see you at your regular routine of cooking, cleaning, patching—saving fats and tin—helping the Red Cross—buying War Bonds—raising Victory gardens—writing us cheerful letters.

Spoken or written words will never be quite adequate to make you realize how much help you are to us by just being—Mother. We want you to know, too, that we're doing every thing we can to end this war and restore Peace for you and all other Mothers as soon as possible.

With Love and Best Wishes,
Your Loving Sons and Daughters in the Services

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

A CHURCH NEEDS YOU—YOU NEED A CHURCH

Palace To Have Premiere Showing of Ohioan's Film

"This Land Is Mine" on Screen Sunday Through Wednesday: Double Feature Bill To Start Thursday.

Playing Sunday through Wednesday at the Palace theater is a world premiere showing of "This Land Is Mine" starring Charles Laughton, Maureen O'Hara and George Sanders. The scenario was written and the film produced by a Wapakoneta, O., man, Dudley Nichols.

A message of patriotism is the theme of this picture with the story beginning with the arrival of the Nazi troops in the little village where a timorous school teacher, played by Laughton, is secretly in love with a fellow teacher, Miss O'Hara.

The Nazi commander, Major von Keller, does his best to keep things peaceful because his task will be easier if there is no friction. Some of the villagers "cooperate" but the resentment of most of them grows and leads to an outbreak.

Von Keller, forced to act, takes hostages who will be shot unless the ringleaders of the patriots are surrendered. This involves the trembling schoolteacher, and he finds himself being borne swiftly along on the current of events toward a climax. His patriotism overcomes his fears in the end.

A double feature program, "Calling Dr. Gillespie" with Lionel Barrymore and Philip Dorn, and "My Heart Belongs to Daddy" with Richard Carlson and Frances Gifford will be shown Thursday through Saturday.

A romance, a strange case of dual personality, thrills and mystery in a hospital go into "Calling Dr. Gillespie." The story deals with the discovery by Dr. Gillespie, played by Lionel Barrymore, and Dr. Gerneide, portrayed by Philip Dorn, of symptoms of a strange dementia in a young socialite. The wealthy parents and

"society doctor" scorn their warnings, until the youth develops "spells" during which he becomes a homicidal maniac. He finally invades the hospital intent on killing the older doctor, who is saved in a surprise climax.

"My Heart Belongs to Daddy" is a comedy-romance with Martha O'Driscoll as the burlesque queen and Richard Carlson as a college professor. The complications start when the bubble dancer gives birth to a child and her husband's family tries to get it away from her.

Marion Bills Comedy Film

"Two Weeks To Live," Starring Lum and Abner, on Through Monday.

Starting at midnight Saturday and continuing through Monday at the Marion theater, Lum and Abner appear in "Two Weeks To Live." This comedy has as its theme the problem of earning $10,000 in two weeks. It begins when Abner inherits a railroad and envisions Pine Ridge, as a flourishing railroad center. To further complicate the matter Lum and Abner collect the money from residents of Pine Ridge, only to find that the railroad is practically useless.

Also playing is "Moonlight in Havana" with Allan Jones and Jane Frazee, in starring roles. Playing Tuesday and Wednesday is "Tish" starring Marjorie Main, Zasu Pitts and Aline MacMahon, and "Journey Into Fear" with Joseph Cotten, Dolores Del Rio, Ruth Warrick and Orson Welles.

Thursday through Saturday "Lone Prairie" starring Dub Taylor and Bob Wills will be shown. This is an outdoor adventure film mixing blazing guns and western songs. Billed with "Lone Prairie" is "Behind the Eight Ball" starring the Ritz Brothers, Carol Bruce, Dick Foran and Grace McDonald.

Horse Picture Now at Ohio

"My Friend Flicka" Continues Through Thursday; War Film Follows.

Now playing through Thursday at the Ohio theater, in technicolor are Roddy McDowall, Preston Foster and Rita Johnson in "My Friend Flicka." This is the screen adaptation of Mary O'Hara's novel of the modern West. Topping the list of best sellers for many months, it also had the distinction of being selected for reproduction in four of the nation's top-circulation magazines and later it was picked by the Book-of-the-Month Club for its readers.

It is the story of a successful rancher, played by Preston Foster, and his capable and understanding young wife, Rita Johnson, whose excellent in the role of the mother of Roddy McDowall. Young Roddy portrays the part of a dream-eyed lovable boy with a great love for a horse. The couple are concerned over their son whose experiences are more than enough to cause concern.

Starting Friday and continuing through Monday, is "Desert Victory." This is not a fictional story but is the actual day-by-day account of the rout of Rommel by Montgomery's British Eighth army. The full length picture was photographed in the field by film units of the British Army and RAF under the command of Lt. Col. David MacDonald.

"Desert Victory" is a factual yet inspiring account of the entire 1,400-mile campaign across the desert—the campaign that cracked Rommel's once proud Afrika Korps.

Jack Benny, Ann Sheridan in Film At State Theater

Playing Sunday and Monday at the State is "George Washington Slept Here" starring Jack Benny and Ann Sheridan. The story has to do with an average American city-reared couple and their endeavors to restore a shambles of a house where George Washington once slept. The couple played by Jack Benny and Ann Sheridan, move and are instantly amidst piles of gravel, falling plaster and decrepit plumbing. Matters go from bad to worse when they are visited by a rich and eccentric uncle whose favor they are forced to court. Added to these conditions are an impish nephew, an adolescent niece and her jitterbug boy friend and a slow-moving caretaker.

Playing on the same bill "Inside the Law" with Wallace Ford. Showing Tuesday and Wednesday, "Melody Lane" with the Merry Maes and Baby Sandy and "Devil Pays Off" with Margaret Tallichet and William Wright. Starting Thursday and con-

BUYING HELPS BOLSTER LIST

Profit Taking Customers Turn to Other Side: Favorites Make Recovery.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Wall Street had another change of heart today and, with many of Friday's profit taking customers returning to the buying side, stock market favorites recovered fractions to more than a point.

Rails weakest in yesterday's sell-off, led the comeback after a slightly mixed opening. They were followed by steels, motors and specialties. Large blocks of low-priced issues kept the ticker tape busy and transfers were in the vicinity of 1,000,000 shares.

Advances were well in the majority near the close.

The financial district was cheered by the exceptionally good war news from Tunisia and it was felt in some quarters that liquidation in the preceding session may have been overdone. The reaction, however, generally was in line with expectations. Pleasing to commission houses was the growing trading activity.

Stocks given a lift in today's brief proceedings included New York Central, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, U. S. Rubber, Westinghouse, American Telephone, International Telephone, Pepsi-Cola and Texas Co. New 1943 tops were posted for American & Foreign Power and Build Mfg.

Stocks given a lift in today's brief proceedings included New York Central, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, U. S. Rubber, Westinghouse, American Telephone, International Telephone, Pepsi-Cola and Texas Co. New 1943 tops were posted for American & Foreign Power and Build Mfg.

WAREHOUSE BURNS IN $400,000 FIRE

CANTON, O., May 8.—Fire today destroyed the Thurin Furniture and Rug Co. warehouse in Canton's business district, causing loss which the owner estimated at $400,000.

Three firemen were taken to a hospital, two overcome by smoke and the other suffering a back injury.

M. L. Thurin, co-owner of the warehouse with his brother, B. A. Thurin, estimated the loss at $400,000 and added that the damage may be closer to half a million dollars.

Contents of the structure included furniture, mattresses, rugs and other furnishings, "much of which is virtually irreplaceable," Thurin declared.

Fire Chief George E. Jacob issued a general alarm and called civilian defense auxiliary firemen into action.

U. S. TAKES ISLAND NEARER JAP BASE

WASHINGTON, May 8.—American forces in the North Pacific now are in position to drive the Japanese out of the western Aleutian islands, hitherto held by them, whenever the high command decides the time has come to strike.

And while they wait, their presence on Amchitka Island breathes the constant threat of new air raids down Tokyo's neck.

The Aleutian flight will be bloody, for the Japanese have worked with feverish haste to entrench themselves strongly on Kiska and Attu islands ever since their invasion last June. But there is no doubt in official quarters that the job can and will be done when the time comes and it might be this month or next—a right Navy announcement yesterday of the establishment of an American base on Amchitka, only 43 nautical miles from Kiska, led to speculation the blow might fall soon. In any case, the new base assures Japanese installations at Kiska of constant pounding by American warplanes.

The base is in full use and presumably strongly defended. American troops moved in unopposed in mid-January. The Navy communication said the movement was kept secret until American positions were fully consolidated. It also told of the establishment of a base on Adak Island in the Aleutians, 149 nautical miles farther east from Kiska than Amchitka.

Even with a base so close, officials considered it impossible to bomb the Japanese out of Kiska, and still felt that recapture of the island will require hand-to-hand combat.

Meanwhile, there was speculation Amchitka might be used for air raids on Tokyo. The distance is 1,027 nautical miles, or 2,219 statute miles. Only the nation's longest ranged new planes could undertake such a mission with any appreciable margin of safety.

Wm. Myers Burial Rites Here Monday

Graveside services for Wm. Myers, 74, of Forest Glen Memorial Park, will be held for William Myers of Cleveland, brother-in-law of Mr. Ralph Good of 274 Olney avenue, Monday afternoon at 3. Word was received here of his death today in his home after several weeks' illness. He had been a patient in Crile's clinic in Cleveland. Surviving is his widow, Mrs. Myrtle Myers, a sister of Mrs. Good. He was a native of Cleveland and was an engineer at the Rockwell building there 35 years.

Quinto To Launch 5 Ships at Superior, Wis.

SUPERIOR, Wis., May 8.—Public demands for a left-handed Christmas bottle were satisfied today as a crowd awarded a special train bearing the Dionio quintuplets—a feature attraction at the launching of five cargo ships tomorrow.

The cry went up shortly after a launching foreman explained that the five merchantmen on the ways at the Butler Shipbuilding Co. would slide to the left of the platform tomorrow, and may force Emilio, the petite southerner, to make a backhand swing at her vessel.

Pitfalls of Love

By ADELE GARRISON

WITH AN indulgent smile my mother, when I asked her to write a letter for me, said: "Now, as I have heard your husband adore you, go ahead and talk your head off."

"I don't like doing just that," I said with a smile, "but I'll try not to tax your patience too much. However, I have much to tell you and we won't about Katharine. In the first place, am I right in assuming that you do not wish her to go to see Jack at the highway until after this affair of Ruth Hayes has been cleared up?"

"Absolutely right," he returned. "I hope I shall not have to ask Katharine to confront that evil woman at all. I shall do everything in my power to prevent that, but I must have her near at hand. So do not set any definite time for her going to the highway, but assure her that the moment I can spare her, she shall go there. I trust she will not be disappointed."

"I think she expects that," I evaded. "In fact, I already have prepared her for it."

Praise for Madge

"As always, you meet every emergency," he said, and I flushed with pleasure.

"Now for your next question," he went on briskly. "Yet there is no need for haste, for I must wait here until Dixon gets back and I hear what Dixon has observed of Ruth Hayes."

"Incidentally," he added, "I am not at all satisfied with Dixon. He will have to explain why he did not report to me immediately on the visit of the Hayes woman to Dr. Meredith."

As I saw grim lines form around my father's mouth, I did not enter Dixon's minutes of explanation before him, but told myself, in Dick's phraseology, "He'd better have a good one ready."

But I was glad my father was giving the man time to make his appearance, for this gave me a rare opportunity of uninterrupted confidential talk with "the Chief," and Katharine's plight spurred me on.

Questions for Spencer

"Before I go on, Father," I said, "I want to ask you one question. Have I ever presumed to question you concerning your plans or tried to interfere with them?"

He waited a moment, with something almost impish in his eyes.

"Not consciously," he said at last. "Yes, I can acquit you of attempted interference," then added, with tender raillery, "Surely, you're not taking seriously what I just said? Please go on with whatever you were planning to tell me."

I rallied my courage and faced him with steady eyes.

"What I am planning—yes, I admit there is something—depends upon the answers you make to some questions I wish to ask. First, could Ronald take Dixon's place with Harry for a few days?"

He was thoughtful for an instant, then spoke slowly.

"I prefer having Richard as well as Ronald with Harry," he said, "but if the reason were urgent enough, Ronald could carry on."

"Second," I said, "would it be practicable for me to assume the pretended care of Mary?"

"Entirely practicable," he replied promptly, "provided always that your apartment is never left alone. But I should imagine that Noel could come over here and do his work whenever you were engaged with Mary."

That impish gleam again showed in his eyes.

"You are a better actress than Katharine," he said, "which is all that is needed in Mary's case, when scheming and acquiring friends call on her. And now suppose you take a short cut, and tell me what is behind these questions of yours?"

YOUR HEALTH

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Eating Binge

"EATING Binge Must End," reads a heading in my daily newspaper and refers to statements made by Mr. Roy F. Hendrickson, chief of the Food Distribution Administration.

What do you mean, eating binge? It was only about a year before Pearl Harbor that Dr. Thomas Parran, Surgeon-General of the United States Public Health Service, told us that 40,000,000 Americans were suffering from deficiency diseases and Mr. Paul V. McNutt, not to be outdone, upped him and said that 45,000,000 Americans were "lacking foods essential for health" and 50,000,000 Americans "have impaired health because they do not eat the right food."

Of course, I did not believe these statements at the time. I based my beliefs on observations in a dispensary clinic in a hospital where the patients are in the low income group, because it was rare to find more than one or two cases of deficiency disease in 80,000 patients a year—even cases in the early stages. Furthermore, I undertook the examination of 1500 employees in an industrial plant and found no evidences of deficiency disease in any of them. According to Dr. Parran's remarks, I should have found 500 with deficiency disease and according to Mr. McNutt, I should have found 1000.

But in the present set-up on food rationing it is not at all unlikely that we will begin to see deficiency disease, although I do not believe ever in the numbers that Dr. Parran seemed to estimate.

The Western Hemisphere can supply food in abundance for the whole world. I cannot understand by what process of stumbling our food administrators have gotten us to this pass.

"We need not go hungry and, unless we are stubborn, we need not be improperly nourished," says Mr. Hendrickson.

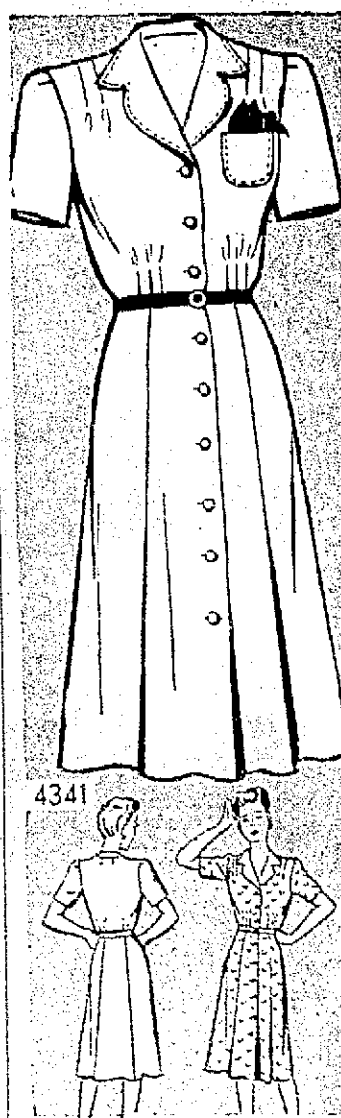

The American people are not stubborn, but most of them have no idea about the vitamins. And they have not been trained to learn any more than they have been trained to use stickers in order to get their rightful amount of food.

In the old days of plenty all but a fraction got a balanced diet because they couldn't help themselves. Instinct and taste and appetite told them to go to a grocery store and get a variety of foods or to grow a variety of foods on their farms.

Mr. Wickard said, after reading some criticisms of this kind from Louis Bromfield, the farmer-author, that Mr. Bromfield had not on.

The Stars Say—

For Sunday, May 2

SUNDAY'S horoscope points to swift-moving events of importance, in which financial and business coups may relegate social, affectional and cultural activities into the background. The energies and faculties should spur to quick and decisive acts. It is admonished, however, not to make any reckless moves.

Those whose birthday it is may be grasped by a sudden urge to take openings and sudden opportunities, in order to gain quick profits or sharp rises of a constructive and lucrative industry. Aggressiveness and audacity in grasping good fortune at the source by bold strokes of genius and initiative, should achieve sensational success.

A child born on this day may be positive, resourceful, aggressive and be blessed by Lady Luck, as well, but should exercise some temperamental restraints.

For Monday, May 10

MONDAY'S astrological forecast is for sudden and unforeseen openings which may lead to progress, advantages and much gratification and happiness in both business and private aspirations. The unusual and romantic may be fraught with the unusual, with the finer emotions and creative ability promising singular success.

Those whose birthday it is may be under particularly intriguing, romantic and subtle stimuli for surprising success, probably in unusual, spectacular or out-of-the-ordinary channels of creative expression. The energies and emotions should be keyed to success, through keen vision, intuitions and sagacity, as well as sound sense and good judgment.

A child born on this day may be endowed with many public, occult and mystical forces and should make unusual progress with its fine creative energies.
